LIBER 21 PAGE 34

A This is delivered to G. Wallace Davis, Jr. It is a deed from Charles W. Ross, Jr. to G. Wallace Davis and others, dated September 11, 1920.

MR. NEWMAN: That deed is filed as an Exhibit in this case, marked Exhibit No. 1, and we offer that as an Exhibit to the testimony.

Q Now I show you another deed, Exhibit No. 2 filed with the bill, and ask you so give the date of that deed and the parties.

A The date is January 8, 1921, from Vernon W. Davis and Ethel L. Davis, his wife, to G. Wallace Davis.

That deed conveys all the interest of Vernon W. Davis and his wife, being a one-sixth undivided interest in and to the farm conveyed by the deed marked Exhibit No. 1: that is correct, isn't it?

A Yes, sir.

Now I show you deed marked Exhibit No. 3. This deed is from Eli E. Davis and others to G. Wallace Davis. It is dated August 3, 1921 and is marked Exhibit No. 3 filed with the bill. This deed conveys the interest of the grantors in and to the farm land described in the first deed marked Exhibit No. 1.

A Yes, sir.

Q Now then, I show you Exhibit No. 4, which is a deed dated October 5, 1935, by which Alexander Windsor Davis and Nora B. Davis, his wife, conveyed to G. Wallace Davis certain lands therein described. That is marked Exhibit No. 4.

- A Yes, sir.
- Q. Now those two farms are adjacent to each other, aren't they?
- A Yes, sir.
- Q And they are all farmed as one tract?
- A As one unit, yes, sir.
- Q And if the acreage in the deeds is determined it will aggre-
